The Calcutta, Explained

The 40th Annual Last Call Invitational · Armand Comeau Cup · Derrick Golf & Winter Club

Own a team

BIDDING CLOSES 1:15 SHARP

An auction, not a raffle. Every one of the 30 teams goes on the block. You bid, you win, you own that team for the day — and if they finish top three, you get paid.

HOW IT WORKS

Buying a team

1. Each team is auctioned to the room, one at a time. Bidding opens at $100 — that's the floor, there is no ceiling.
2. Highest bid takes the team. You now own them for the day. Nobody else can buy that team.
3. Every dollar bid goes into one pot. There is no house cut, no rake — the whole pool pays out.
4. You can own more than one team. Spread your money or go all-in on a favourite — your call.
5. Pay when you win the bid. Cash, at the table.

PAYOUT

How the pot pays

When the Armand Comeau Cup is decided, the pot is split three ways to the owners of the top three teams. Ties are broken by the count-back rule on the Rules Sheet.

50% Owner of the winner $5,000

30% Owner of 2nd place $3,000

20% Owner of 3rd place $2,000

Example payouts on a $10,000 pot — the real pot is whatever the room bids.

1:15 PM

All betting closes at 1:15 sharp — the Calcutta, the parimutuel, everything. The auction runs in the Main Ballroom from 11:00, alongside lunch. Once the gavel's down on the last team, that's it: no late bids, no side deals, be at your cart by 1:30 and the shotgun goes at 2:00.

Buy your own team? Sure — nothing stops you bidding on the team you're playing on. Buy a long shot? That's the whole fun. Payouts are handed out at the awards presentation, 8:00–9:00 PM, Main Ballroom.
